⚠ Important organisational information
Please arrive at NCBJ by 9:00 AM to ensure a smooth start to the programme.
Bringing laptops onto the NCBJ premises must be registered in advance. If you plan to bring a laptop with you, please make sure that it has been registered in accordance with the applicable procedure.

Please also bring a valid ID card or passport and have it ready to present at the entrance to NCBJ.
The detailed group allocation and instructions regarding movement between the different programme locations will be provided by the organisers on site.
We are delighted that you will be joining us for the fourth day of the conference and hope that the visit to NCBJ will be a valuable experience and an opportunity to explore its research activities and scientific infrastructure.

See you tomorrow!
